LEOMINSTER/PRINCETON – Carole M. (Trefethen) Clark, age 84, most beloved wife, mother, grandmother and friend, passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 20, 2021. Born and raised in Haverhill.

Carole will be vividly remembered for being a gifted and talented singer with Gilbert & Sullivan operas. She was an active member and Church Choir Director at Our Lady of Fatima Church in Sudbury, and later at Prince of Peace Parish in Princeton. Carole’s daughters will cherish the memories of her beautiful singing at their weddings. Her amazing trivia knowledge impressed everyone. Jeopardy was her fun daily activity. Carole loved to travel and with her sister Zoe by her side, the two traveled frequently, with many memorable trips.

Family was so very important to her. She was never one to miss a recital, game, birthday or any family event. Her family also included animals, where every stray that visited her was welcomed.

She is predeceased by her husband, Richard “Dick” C. Clark.

Carole’s legacy will live on with her many famous holiday recipes that have been passed to her children and grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held privately at a later date.
