August 20, 1943 - July 22, 2019

STERLING / SOUTH YARMOUTH - Ellen (Hastings) Landini died peacefully at home in South Yarmouth on July 22, 2019 at the age of 75. Ellen is survived by her childhood sweetheart and devoted husband of 53 years, Edward (Andy) Landini, her children Lisa Williams, wife of Timothy, and Jay Landini, and his wife Stacy, as well as three grandchildren, Carly and Matthew Williams and Cole Landini, to whom she was affectionately known as MeeMee. She was preceded in death by her parents John and Evelyn (Sullivan) Hastings.

Ellen was born in Ayer, MA. She graduated from Littleton High School in 1961 and University of Massachusetts Amherst in 1965, with a degree in Psychology. She married the love of her life in 1966. After college, Ellen worked as a social worker before staying home to raise her two children in Sterling MA, where she was blessed with many wonderful friends. Later, she worked at Flagship Bank, working her way up to AVP of Private Banking. Ellen loved to travel and read and late night games of Pitch with her family. She loved dogs, especially Newfoundlands, gardening and the beaches of Cape Cod, where she and her husband retired to and were fortunate to again find a supportive neighborhood community. Ellen was a quiet, gentle woman who was quick to smile and laugh, especially with her husband, who she adored more than anything. Ellen fought a long battle with Alzheimer's but never forgot how to love. Ellen's children and grandchildren will miss her immensely.
